British Forces Bring Attack On Jaffa To Halt

Principal Thrusts Of Irgun Forces Are Stopped By British Tanks

AWAIT WORD ON JERUSALEM TRUCE (BULLETIN)

JERUSALEM, April 28.—(INS)—House-to-house street battles broke out in flaming Jaffa today despite a British threat of new air action unless the Jews call off their assault. New British reinforcements were brought up to the Jaffa region in an effort to stem the Jews, who stepped up their attacks after a lull during the night.

JERUSALEM, April 29.—(INS)—British tanks and armored infantry forced back the main Jewish units attacking Arab Jaffa today and brought the three-pronged assault on the city to a standstill.

The armored units stemmed the principal thrusts by forces of the Irgun Zvai Leumi organization in accordance with a British declaration that they would not allow Jewish occupation of Jaffa.

Forces of Haganah, militia of the Jewish agency, made a new attempt to advance but consolidated positions already seized in the area. They commanded one strip of beach in the Manshiya area and three surrounding Arab villages.

Attack Northern Flank One strong column of Jewish forces opened an attack on the Arabs along the northern flank. The Jews pinned down by the British responded to the British attacks with heavy mortar fire.

Reports from Jaffa said at least 50 Arabs were killed and 150 wounded.

Pa New Observes

On Pearl street, below Ray and along Pine street, we have noticed a number of small patches of "mountain moss" in bloom, showing up nicely.

When an auto wreck occurs in the city usually glass is shattered which lays on the street. It should be the duty of someone to remove the glass. There has been considerable glass in Cochran Way, between the Public Square and Sycamore street, dangerous to tires. It is reported to be a new.

Judging from the height of local streams during the past two days, a great deal more rain must have fallen in the area north of the city than was noted here. The Shesango stood at a stage of 11.5 feet this morning, a raise of five feet in the last few days.

One reader who noticed a "filler" recently about the presidents of the United States who died in office, points out a coincidence about these presidents. They were all elected at 20-year intervals since 1840: Harrison elected in 1840, Lincoln in 1860, Garfield in 1880, McKinley in 1900, Harding in 1920 and Roosevelt in 1940.

Residents on the east side especially those along Route 422 were taking a second look at a truck that passed by their homes on Wednesday. There was nothing unusual about the truck, which was a large new lime hauling truck but at the wheel was an averaged sized young lady dressed in drivers uniform wheeling the cumbersome vehicle along. This sight was common in the war days but has not been seen for some time.

Seeks Speed-Up On Action For Big Air Force

WASHINGTON, April 29.—(INS)—Chairman Bridges ordered a senate appropriations committee "speed-up" today on the house-passed bill providing planes for a 70-group air force.

The New Hampshire Republican announced that after hearing army Secretary Hays and the joint chiefs of staff this morning, he wants to begin voting on the measure which adds 822 million dollars to the defense budget for plane procurement.

Although action was stepped up on the air force issue, another delay was encountered in the senate armed services committee on the draft-training problem. Chairman McNamara, D., said it probably would be "impossible" for his committee to meet before Tuesday.

Provisions Of Program Committee and defense experts have reached agreement on language for the new universal military training substitute. Gurney said, but will need several days for checking and printing of the bill. The legislation calls for:

1. Drafting 161,000 youths between 18 and 19½ into the armed forces for one year of training, within the United States.
2. Drafting those 19½ to 25 into the armed forces for a regular term of two years. These troops could be used overseas.

The house draft bill, containing on strict training program, was being given finishing touches in the house armed services committee. Chairman Andrews (R-N.Y.) said he "hoped" to complete work on it today.

Church Drive For Revival Of Prohibition

BOSTON, April 29.—(INS)—A board of temperance reported today at the Methodist quadrennial general conference that the church will continue to drive for a revival of prohibition.

Bishop E. M. Hammaker emphasized that main efforts at present should be to urge total abstinence on communicants of the church and to bring before the public the evils and problems of drinking.

Consideration of the board's printed report will be climaxed tonight with an address on alcohol problems by Dr. Louis D. Newton, president of the southern Baptist convention.

The report followed the address of Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of New York, speaking for the council of bishops, who declared the church's "implacable" hostility to the liquor traffic and said Methodist would:

"Seek such regulation as may be necessary to reduce the menace of alcoholism to a minimum and would seek this control through proper legislative channels."

Makes Plea For Reapproval Of Trade Program

WASHINGTON, April 29.—(INS)—President Truman made a strong plea today to Congress for reapproval of the administration's reciprocal trade program.

The chief executive told a news conference that unless Congress approves the program again the nations of the world which are being extended and will never be able to repay this country a cent.

Mr. Truman said that the whole U.S. present foreign policy and plans for world recovery are based on the reciprocal trade agreements entered into with a majority of the world's nations.

He said that unless the reciprocal trade program continues, making possible a renewal of world trade on an equitable basis, other nations will not be able to sell their goods to this country.

Therefore, he said, they will not have the dollar credits or a revived economy to make it possible to repay any of the loans extended them as part of the recovery program.

Board Chairman Frank Douglass and member Francis A. O'Neill are in Chicago to start conferences with the unions and the railroads in an effort to settle the wage dispute.

Mr. Truman was asked to comment on the threatened railroad strike at his news conference. He replied that he did not care to discuss the situation now because the mediation board is working heroically to settle the dispute.

To Meet In Chicago CHICAGO, April 29.—The national railway mediation board meets in Chicago today in a last minute move to head off a paralyzing nationwide railroad strike set by two unions for May 11.

Two of the three operating brotherhood unions involved in the strike, the firemen and engineers, issued formal strike notices for May 11 from their Chicago headquarters.

The third union, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, did not join in the strike notice, but the union's vice-president, J. P. Shields, said all three brotherhoods would walk out together.

At a meeting held last night his union had not yet made up its mind regarding the strike action and probably would hold up its statement until after the mediation board meeting.

The mediation board in Washington called a meeting of railroad and union representatives in Chicago today in an eleven-hour attempt to avert a strike by key workers that would cripple the nation's 225,000-mile railway system.

Board Chairman Frank Douglass said the labor-management meeting was called in an attempt to reach an agreement in the six-month-old wage and working rule dispute on the nation's 132 Class I railroads.

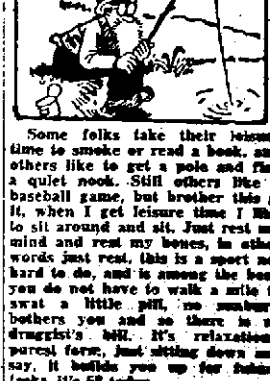

The brotherhoods were free to call a strike following the expiration of the 30-day cooling off period Tuesday midnight after negotiations in Chicago were deadlocked.

Coal Operators Launch Fight On Pensions

WASHINGTON, April 29.—(INS)—Coal mine operators launched a fight today to block operation of the $100-a-month pension program which ended the recent 29-day strike.

Ezra Van Horn, operators' trustee on the United Mine Workers welfare fund board, moved to prevent use of any part of the $4 million dollar fund for the pension plan agreed to by John L. Lewis and Sen. Styles Bridges (R) N. H. Van Horn notified banks in which the money is deposited that any payment from the welfare fund without his "signature and authorization" will be at the banks' "own risk."

The operators' maneuver was aimed at obstructing transfer of five million dollars of the fund to a special pension account, as was approved yesterday by Lewis and Bridges, neutral member of the welfare board, over Van Horn's objection.

Truman Accepts Compromise On Military Training

President Says He Will Reluctantly Accept Proposed Compromise Plan

WOULD COMBINE DRAFT AND U.M.T. (BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, April 29.—(INS)—President Truman said today that he will accept the proposed compromise on Universal Military Training, but exhibited some reluctance in doing so.

The chief executive told a news conference that the compromise is acceptable to him in view of the fact that it looks like that is all that Congress will give him at this time. He said that the country vitally needs an adequate defense program, which includes his repeated recommendations for Universal Military Training.

Mr. Truman declared that the compromise proposal, at least, is a step in the right direction. The compromise would combine the draft with U.M.T., giving youths 18 to 19 and one-half years of age a year's training with the regular armed forces instead of the two years required for selectees. At the same time, Army Secretary Royall backed defense Chief Forrestal's "compromise" preparedness budget but told Congress (Continued on Page Two) Speculate On Likely New Shift In Policy On Palestine By U.S.

By PIERRE J. HUSS (N. Y. Staff Correspondent)
LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., April 29.—Speculation was rife in United Nations circles today that another shift in United States policy on Palestine is imminent.

The speculation was given added impetus by announcement of the appointment of pro-partition Major General John H. Hilldring as assistant secretary of state for Palestine affairs.

General Hilldring, a member of the group which devised the partition plan, worked for its passage at the general assembly last November.

May Modify Attitude
His recall to the State department, announced in Washington by Secretary of State Marshall, lent some support to the belief that U. S. insistence on rejection of partition may be modified. It was believed possible, in some quarters, that the United States, while not returning to its former position as the leading supporter of partition, might stop pressing the trusteeship plan.

The mediation board in Washington called a meeting of railroad and union representatives in Chicago today in an eleventh hour attempt to avert a strike by key workers that would cripple the nation's 225,000-mile railway system. Board Chairman Frank Douglass said the labor-management meeting was called in an attempt to reach an agreement in the six-month-old wage and working rule dispute on the nation's 132 Class I railroads.

The brotherhoods were free to call a strike following the expiration of the 30-day cooling off period Tuesday midnight after negotiations in Chicago were deadlocked.

PLAN BRENNAN FUNERAL
HOLLYWOOD, April 29.—(INS)—Funeral services are to be arranged today for Tom Brennan, the radio master of ceremonies whose death yesterday morning shocked the entire film community.

Throughout Hollywood yesterday personages in the movie and entertainment world eulogized the jovial man who was reported to have never made an enemy.

Some folks take their leisure time to smoke or read a book, and others like to get a pole and fish a quiet nook. Still others like baseball game, but brother time it, when I get leisure time I like to sit around and sit. Just rest my mind and rest my bones, in other words just rest, this is a sport not hard to do, and is among the best you do not have to walk a mile to sweat a little bit, no muscles bother you and so there is no danger's bill. It's relaxation's purest form, just sitting down and say, it builds you up for future looks, it's so easy.

Curiosity Draws Hundreds To Scene Of Fire Ball Hole

Reiter Family Grows Weary Of Explaining Circumstance Surrounding Strange Event

Since 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon a constant stream of local residents and curiosity seekers have been filing past the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Reiter of Jackson avenue to get a glimpse of the hole made in the ground by the fire ball or meteor portion which landed in the backyard of the residence on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Reiter stated that she has been so busy answering questions about the incident and retelling the story from beginning to end that she has scarcely had time to complete her household duties or leave the home to get to the store for needed supplies.

Another group, not so much interested in the hole in the ground at the rear of the home but in the future protection of the dwelling, is seeking to equip the home with lightning rods. "I never knew there were so many lightning rod salesmen," stated Mrs. Reiter.

The Reiters discovered, in a closer investigation of the incident today, that the vibration caused by the visitor from the sky must have been terrific as there are large cracks running from the dog pen near the house toward the hole made by the fireball.

No one as yet has attempted to dig the fragments from the ground to see what type of metal it is made of but this may be done after the excitement dies down and the swarms of visitors are not so great.

Royall gave his estimate of the additional requirement in reply to questions before the Senate Appropriations Committee considering added funds for a 70-group air force.

The army secretary made it clear that he was not requesting the added two billion 88 million dollars, Royall said.

"It means that we have accepted the budget of the secretary of defense, I accept the decision of Mr. Forrestal and I personally agree with him."

Royall appeared as Chairman Bridges (R) N. H., ordered a "speed up" on the House-passed bill providing planes to launch the 70-group program.

wounded in yesterday's furious offensive by the Jews.

One British army sergeant who was astride a Sherman tank as it entered the fighting area was killed.

British troops took up strategic positions inside Jaffa after driving the Jews back.

No Word On Truce Arab and Jewish official bodies in Jerusalem said meanwhile that they have received no communication regarding the agreement in the United Nations trusteeship council for a truce in the old walled city.

The first effect of news concerning the action was a cessation of the Arab exodus from Jerusalem. There also was a general feeling of satisfaction and relief among the Arab populace.

Jews, however, expressed skepticism concerning Arab observance of the truce terms. They remained apprehensive over the fate of some 2,000 Jews besieged within the confines of the walled city.

High level Jewish sources said they were not pleased by the "preliminary" acceptance of the truce by representatives at the U. N. before Jews inside the old city were accorded safety.

The British instituted further measures to quell the Jewish onslaught after initial army sorties and attacks by British rocket planes yesterday failed to stem the battle.

The Arab "rescue" radio in Palestine meanwhile announced that the Arab liberation army is being reorganized and will launch "new operations to insure victory."

Curiosity Draws Hundreds To Scene Of Fire Ball Hole

Reiter Family Grows Weary Of Explaining Circumstance Surrounding Strange Event

Since 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon a constant stream of local residents and curiosity seekers have been filing past the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Reiter of Jackson avenue to get a glimpse of the hole made in the ground by the fire ball or meteor portion which landed in the backyard of the residence on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Reiter stated that she has been so busy answering questions about the incident and retelling the story from beginning to end that she has scarcely had time to complete her household duties or leave the home to get to the store for needed supplies.

Another group, not so much interested in the hole in the ground at the rear of the home but in the future protection of the dwelling, is seeking to equip the home with lightning rods. "I never knew there were so many lightning rod salesmen," stated Mrs. Reiter.

The Reiters discovered, in a closer investigation of the incident today, that the vibration caused by the visitor from the sky must have been terrific as there are large cracks running from the dog pen near the house toward the hole made by the fireball.

No one as yet has attempted to dig the fragments from the ground to see what type of metal it is made of but this may be done after the excitement dies down and the swarms of visitors are not so great.

STAEGER-NELSON
CHURCH WEDDING

Dormont Methodist church was the scene Wednesday evening of a wedding, lovely in every detail, when Miss Bertha Luu Staeger, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Staeger, of 1220 Hillside avenue, Dormont, Pa., became the bride of Robert L. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Nelson, of 208 South Walnut street, this city.

Before an altar embankment of two large baskets of white snapdragons and white gladioli against a background of yuccas and ferns, Rev. C. Lambertson officiated at the double ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of ivory satin fashioned on princess lines with a high neckline and sheer yoke, short draped sleeves complemented by long satin gloves. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet headdress of lace and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Her attendant, Miss Betty McCann, of New Castle, as maid of honor, wore a gown of pastel green satin fashioned like the bride's with matching satin gloves, a headdress of spring flowers and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed spring flowers. Bridesmaids, the Misses Allene Leonard and Jo Ann Coulter, both of Pittsburgh, wore gowns of pastel orchid satin with headdresses of flowers and carried colonial bouquets.

Ronald Nelson served his brother as best man and ushers were Jack Anderson of New Castle, and Jay Kyle, of Pittsburgh.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Betty Jane Nelson, sister of the groom, sang "My Hero," "I Love Thee" and "Because."

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party and the mothers of the bride and groom formed a receiving line at the rear of the church.

Later there was a reception for 80 guests in the Mt. Lebanon Woman's club where buffet refreshments were served and the bride and groom cut the three-tiered wedding cake. Aides were classmates of the bride at the Shady Side Hospital School of Nursing.

Shenango Auxiliary Ladies' Auxiliary of Shenango Township Volunteer firemen will gather Friday evening, April 30, at 6 o'clock for a tureen dinner in the fire hall, East New Castle. Dessert and coffee will be furnished.

STAEBER-NELSON CHURCH WEDDING

Dormont Methodist church was the scene Wednesday evening of a wedding, lovely in every detail, when Miss Bertha Lou Staeber, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Staeber, of 1220 Hillsdale avenue, Dormont, Pa., became the bride of Robert L. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Nelson, of 208 South Walnut street, this city.

Before an altar embankment of two large baskets of white snapdragons and white gladioli against a background of palms and ferns, Rev. C. Lambertson officiated at the double ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of ivory satin fashioned on princess lines with a high neckline and sheer yoke, short draped sleeves complemented by long satin gloves. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet headdress of lace and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Her attendant, Miss Betty McCann, of New Castle, as maid of honor, wore a gown of pastel green satin fashioned like the bride's with matching satin gloves, a headdress of spring flowers and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed spring flowers. Bridesmaids, the Misses Allene Leonard and Jo Ann Coulter, both of Pittsburgh, wore gowns of pastel orchid satin with head-dresses of flowers and carried colonial bouquets.

Ronald Nelson served his brother as best man and ushers were Jack Anderson, of New Castle, and Jay Kyle, of Pittsburgh.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Betty Jane Nelson, sister of the groom, sang "My Hero," "I Love Thee" and "Because."

Immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom formed a receiving line at the rear of the church.

Later there was a reception for 80 guests in the Mt. Lebanon Woman's club where buffet refreshments were served and the bride and groom cut the three-tiered wedding cake. Aides were classmates of the bride at the Shady Side Hospital School of Nursing.

The newlyweds left on a honeymoon to Virginia Beach, Va., and upon their return will take up residence at 1315 Neshannock boulevard here.

Mrs. Nelson is a graduate of Dormont High school and the Shady Side Hospital School of Nursing, Pittsburgh, and Mr. Nelson is a graduate of New Castle High school. He is employed at the Rieck-McJunkin Dairy Company.

JAMESON HOSPITAL SEWINGS CONTINUE Due to the continuing urgent need for supplies at Jameson Memorial hospital, sewings for the hospital will continue weekly until August 1, according to an announcement made from a member of the board of the Jameson Memorial Hospital Aid Society.

During April the Hershey auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church has been sewing each Wednesday morning in the nurses home on North Jefferson street at the corner of Lincoln avenue.

On Wednesday, May 3, the Iva M. Hamill Missionary society of Mt. Jackson U.P. church, will be the hostess group for the sewing, the Central Circle of Central Presbyterian church for the succeeding two Wednesdays, and the Women's Missionary society of the First Baptist church for the last Wednesday.

All women who wish to volunteer for the sewings are welcome to attend as well as members of the volunteer hostess groups.

Hours are 9 a. m. to noon in the nurses home.

Cavalier Club Mrs. Thomas Beatrice of Pennsylvania avenue, received the Cavalier club, Wednesday evening, and the group enjoyed a theatre party.

Later dainty refreshments were served in a local tearoom. Mrs. Sebastian Vericelli captured the door prize.

May 13, is the meeting with Mrs. Nick Paris, Pollock avenue.

Record Set For Veteran-Patients Now Hospitalized

Number Of Patients In Hospital
Surpass Record Of 1945; Many Awaiting Admission

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—(INS)—The number of veteran-patients hospitalized by Veterans Administration reached an all-time high of 109,325 on March 1, V. A. reported.

This was a gain of 1,874 over the previous peak of 107,451 on February 1, and an increase of 37,713 over the 71,713 veterans hospitalized in July, 1945.

The number of veterans awaiting admission to hospitals also increased during February for the second straight month. The total on March 1 was 21,114, compared with 19,505 at the end of January and 4,329 in July, 1945. The February increases were caused almost entirely by applications from veterans with non-service-connected disabilities.

V. A. must provide medical care for veterans with service-connected ailments. Veterans with non-service-connected disabilities may be hospitalized if beds are available and if they affirm they cannot afford to pay for the treatment elsewhere.

Veterans Administration and veterans hospital camp shows have reestablished the hospital sketching program originally instituted by the USO-camp shows, Veterans Administration announced.

The program will draw on a pool of 150 volunteers, all professional artists, sending them out for a week at a time to sketch portraits of hospitalized men who receive the finished likeness as a gift. Veterans are urged by Veterans Administration to use official V. A. premium mailing envelopes when paying national service life insurance premiums by mail.

V. A. said use of the envelopes helps expedite handling of G. I. insurance payments since full information necessary to process the payment already is included by V. A. before the envelope is mailed to veteran policy holders.

Veterans who pay G. I. insurance premiums by mail should make checks or money orders payable to the Treasurer of the United States. If the official yellow V. A. premium notice envelopes are not used, veterans should give their G. I. insurance policy number, service serial number and any other information to aid V. A. in making proper identification.

SERVE RHUBARB IN SPRING MEALS

With spring comes rhubarb, the first sauce-making crop of the new season. The pink sauce will perk up any meal. Make the sauce by cooking or baking. Wash and cut the rhubarb in short pieces, add about one-third cup of sugar to each cup of rhubarb. Cover the pan or baking dish lightly; no water will be needed if it cooked on low heat.

For a little fancier dessert, put the diced rhubarb and sugar in the bottom of a heavy skillet and pour a plain cake over it to make rhubarb upside-down cake. Bake about an hour at 350 degrees Fahrenheit. Take the cake from the range and turn it over on a cake rack immediately. Serve the upside-down cake with whipped cream.

To make another simple dessert, pour plain custard sauce, cooked, over stewed rhubarb.

For taste variety, use rhubarb in place of other fruits in Brown Betty. The ingredients are:

2 1/2 cups stewed rhubarb
1-3 cups soft bread crumbs
1/4 cup sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 1/2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons grated orange rind.

Place half of the rhubarb in greased casserole. Combine crumbs, sugar and cinnamon and pour half over the rhubarb. Dot with butter and orange rind and bake at 375 degrees Fahrenheit for 45 minutes. Serve it with hard sauce. Yields six servings.

one. Through their contacts with extension, rural homemakers became interested in good home management practices and short cuts for doing their household work more efficiently, no longer being satisfied with just skills in cooking and sewing.

Rural women are taking an active interest in community and civic programs and helping to provide wholesome recreation for themselves and their families. They realize that family relationships are vital in building better homes today and are eager for all the help they can get to help build these good relationships.

Rural homemakers are assuming the role of leaders in their communities, states Mr. Fry, knowing that they must do their part toward helping to build tomorrow's world. Many of them are leaders of 4-H clubs, teaching teen-age girls home management skills and practices.

Sampson Alliance Elects Officers

Communion Service Precedes Annual Meeting In Which Good Fiscal Year Is Reported

Annual church election of the Sampson street Alliance church took place on Tuesday evening in the church with the pastor, Rev. Edward Truran, serving as chairman of the meeting.

A short Bible address was given by the pastor, followed by a communion service. Reports were presented by the heads of the various departments, with the treasurer reporting an excellent financial year.

The following officers were named: Bible school superintendent, Gene Johnson; assistant, John Altman; treasurer, Robert Kajajainen; secretary, Mrs. Helen McEwen; financial secretary, Charles Byler; missionary treasurer, Mrs. Mary Grim; elders, John Altman, Charles Byler and Gene Johnson; deaconesses, Mrs. Mary Boyles, Mrs. Elbert Carroff; trustee for one year, John Grim; other board members, Herman Byler, Harold Grim, Gene Johnson; pianist, Mrs. Helen McEwen; assistant, Mrs. Gene Johnson; ushers, George Johnson, Gene McEwen and Lee Stoner.

Garden Notes

The following tender crops should not be set out until warm weather has definitely arrived: Cucumbers and other vine crops, lima beans, tomatoes, peppers and egg-plant.

Currents and gooseberries are somewhat tolerant of shade and may be grown on the north sides of buildings or walks, or among grapes and Freedom garden fruit trees.

Forsythias should be pruned

immediately after blooming so that new growth may take the place of some of the oldest stalks. Magnolias, flowering dogwoods, cherries, almonds and cornelian cherries normally do not require pruning.

Red raspberries are more easy to grow than the black on purple varieties. They also require less space.

It is advisable to destroy by burning all prunings from fruit trees affected by fire blight as the bacteria which causes it is capable of remaining alive for several weeks or even months in diseased wood.

Frequent but shallow cultivation or hoeing should be given at seven to 10-day intervals from the time seedlings appear above the ground in the Freedom garden until the plants become so large that one cannot move through the rows without injuring the foliage.

Sampson Alliance Elects Officers

Communion Service Precedes Annual Meeting In Which Good Fiscal Year Is Reported

Annual church election of the Sampson street Alliance church took place on Tuesday evening in the church with the pastor, Rev. Edward Truran, serving as chairman of the meeting.

A short Bible address was given by the pastor, followed by a communion service. Reports were presented by the heads of the various departments, with the treasurer reporting an excellent financial year.

The following officers were named: Bible school superintendent, Gene Johnson; assistant, John Altman; treasurer, Robert Kalajainen; secretary, Mrs. Helen McEwen; financial secretary, Charles Byler; missionary treasurer, Mrs. Mary Grim; elders, John Altman, Charles Byler and Gene Johnson; deaconesses, Mrs. Mary Boyles, Mrs. Elbert Cearloss; trustee for one year, John Grim; other board members, Herman Byler, Harold Grim, Gene Johnson; pianist, Mrs. Helen McEwen; assistant, Mrs. Gene Johnson; ushers, George Johnson, Gene McEwen and Lee Stoner.

Garden Notes

The following tender crops should not be set out until warm weather has definitely arrived: Cucumbers and other vine crops, lima beans, tomatoes, peppers and egg-plant.

Currents and gooseberries are somewhat tolerant of shade and may be grown on the north sides of buildings or walls, or among grapes and Freedom garden fruit trees.

Forsythias should be pruned

immediately after blooming so that new growth may take the place of some of the oldest stalks. Magnolias, flowering dogwoods, cherries, almonds and cornelian cherries normally do not require pruning. Red raspberries are more easy to grow than the black on purple varieties. They also require less space.

It is advisable to destroy by burning all prunings from fruit trees affected by fire blight as the bacteria which causes it is capable of remaining alive for several weeks or even months in diseased wood.

Frequent but shallow cultivation or hoeing should be given at seven to 10-day intervals from the time seedlings appear above the ground in the Freedom garden until the plants become so large that one cannot move through the rows without injuring the foliage.

State Amvets Urge Training Program Support Continued

HARRISBURG, April 28.—(INS)—Pennsylvania Amvets urged the Veterans Administration not to abandon supervision of training programs for ex-servicemen lest abuses by "fly-by-night" schools magnify.

In a letter to V. A. Director Carl R. Gray, Jr., Amvets Commander Joseph M. Gelman asserted the V.A.'s proposed withdrawal from supervision for economy purposes would "lead to abuses and fraud of both the veteran and the public."

"Every experience has shown that more, not less, supervision in the fields of vocational training under the G. I. bill is necessary to protect the veteran and the taxpayer," Gelman asserted.

Willing Funds
He pointed out that Congress was willing to appropriate sufficient funds to cover administration costs which he described as "tiny in comparison to the amount to be spent" for subsidization of G.I.'s post-war adjustment training.

"Economy in a public official is a virtue, but it is not economy to endanger the operation of existing laws which will result in the squandering of sums of money significant in comparison to the amount saved," Gelman declared.

Specifically, he warned of "greedy employers anxious for cheap labor" who entice "misled and uninformed veterans" into entering the wrong schools and fields and selling their heritage under the G. I. bill for a mess of pottage.

Girl Scouts Plan For Yearly Dinner

Scout Workers, Scouts And Their Parents To Gather May 13 At The Cathedral

For a number of weeks the Girl Scout office in the Greer building has been humming with activity. Leaders have been meeting several times each week to work on plans and decorations, and scouts have been rehearsing for the program, all in preparation for the annual Girl Scout dinner.

This year the dinner is to be held on Thursday evening, May 13, at 6 o'clock in the Cathedral. Tickets are on sale in the troops now, and reservations must be made with the leaders by May 7.

In the past the affair has been in the form of a mothers and daughters banquet, but this year the girls are honoring both "Dad and Mother" by including them on the guest list. The dinner now includes: Adult Scout workers, registered scouts (seniors, intermediates and Brownies), their fathers and mothers.

The general theme of the program this year will be centered around the clothing drive which is the National Scout Project for this year. It is the goal of Girl Scouts of America to clothe 100,000 children of Europe. The troops of New Castle have already collected, conditioned and packed a number of these kits for the needy children of other lands.

Birds that breed on rock ledges without building nests, lay pointed eggs which tend to roll about in a small circle instead of off the ledge.

Court House

Per Capita Cost
Of Ballots High

Cost The County Better
Than Fifty-Nine Cents
Per Person For Election Returns

OTHER EVENTS
IN COURT HOUSE

From a survey of costs of the primary election on Tuesday—not a complete total of costs—it appears that the taxpayers paid not less than approximately 59 cents per ballot. If all costs were figured in the figure would probably go about 70 cents.

The ballots for the election cost $1052.62. The expense for officials' pay, rent, installing booths and other incidentals in New Castle cost $2708.90. The same costs for the townships was $2313.05. For Ellwood City and the other boros the cost was $941.70. To this should be added about $500 for official return board cost and another approximate $500 for special registration compiling street lists, materials, etc. This brings the total to $8017.17.

The actual number of ballots given voters was 13,732. That averages a little better than 59 cents each. To get a complete picture of the cost one would have to take a percentage of permanent registration costs, clerk hire in the commissioners' office and a number of other costs.

If one could add to this cost the amount of money spent by candidates, and the amount of state money spent the total would probably be an astounding one.

With the number of official ballots given out, known, it is now possible to get the percentage of registered voters who cast ballots Tuesday. The total registration for the county is 38,763. The number of ballots used was 13,732. The percentage is a few decimal points under 35, a woefully low vote.

Actually the true percentage of voters registered and able to vote would bring the total up to about 37 per cent.

From the total of 38,763 should be deducted the number who have died, the number unable because of sickness to vote and the number who were away. A few more would come off for those registered in the parties which had no tickets filed.

Even at that, 37 per cent is a low figure for an election.

Plan Display Of
Work Of Special
Class At School

Preparations Being Made For Program At North Street Public School

One of the hardest working classes in the North street grade school is the O.B. class made up of students who have not advanced as rapidly as some of the pupils and need special training not only to develop their skills but to provide them with work which is not generally learned from books but through practical experience.

The 18 members of the class are personally tutored by Mrs. Margaret Ficus who has been working with the boys and girls for the past eight months directing them in their special work, giving individual instruction to each pupil. The class work is divided equally with 30 per cent of the time spent on books and the remainder on practical work.

The room where the boys and girls study and work is located in the basement of the North street school, but upon entry to the room, the surroundings are brightened by the many articles and paintings that have been created by the students with no models except a picture that is before them. The boys have carved wooden animals and other designs with the tools provided them, with many of the items gracing the desks of the various rooms of the school building.

The intricate work done by the boys and girls of the class will be displayed in a short time at a special program which will be presented in the school auditorium. The O.B. pupils will present a real circus and everything used including the costumes and other displays will all be made by the boys and girls of the class. A real puppet show is promised for the day which time will be announced later. Even sound effects have been arranged for the "circus" which will be presented before the entire school.

Members of the O.B. class move into their proper class as soon as they have advanced in their work and are able to comprehend the further advanced book work that the boys and girls of their age are studying.

Real Estate Men
Face Court Action

PITTSBURGH, April 20.—(INS)—Federal attorneys today had paved the way for court action against real estate operators and contractors suspected of defrauding war veterans in the Pittsburgh area.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Elmer W. Finkel said he would go before the May grand jury to seek indictments against "about six" Pittsburgh men for violation of the National Service-men's Readjustment Act's home finance clause.

Finkel said the violation came to light after the Veterans Administration asked ex-GIs to report any irregular practices imposed upon them before they could buy homes.

REPLY TO ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

"I have just received in the mail a folded card bearing the name of a male cousin of mine and underneath that of a girl. Thus:

Miss Mary Jane Roberts
Mr. Paul Porter

On the front flap of the card were their combined initials—R. P. I presume this is an engagement announcement but I am not sure. I have never met the girl. However, I do know her address. However, I do know that she lives in the same distant town as my cousin. What am I required to do? Since I know his address, will an acknowledgment to him suffice? Must I send an engagement gift?

Answer: You are correct. This is an engagement announcement and the correct acknowledgment is always a note extending good wishes for happiness to the bride.

Since you do not know the girl and have not any idea where she lives, how can you send such a note? In view of the circumstances, write a congratulatory note to your cousin, in which explain your predicament, asking him to give you his fiancée's address so that you may extend to her your good wishes.

Engagement gifts are sometimes given by friends and members of the family to the bride-to-be. This, however, is not necessary, especially in this case, since you do not know the girl.

If you receive an invitation to any showers (very unlikely since you live at a distant point) or an invitation to the wedding reception, you must send a gift whether or not you accept or decline.
A wedding announcement, of course, does not require a gift or an acknowledgment.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Paving Charges For Road Repairs Are Raised By State

Increased Material And Labor Costs Have Boosted Department Restoration Charges

HARRISBURG.—Increased material and labor has forced the Department of Highways to boost one class of charges for restoration of pavement where special permits are necessary.

The new schedule of charges becomes effective May 1. The only category of special highway occupancy fees or restoration charges affected is for the restoration of improved road surfaces. This covers surface treated waterbound macadam or higher types of pavement.

Where the amount of restoration is not to exceed five square yards the charge is increased from $9 to $12. The charge for each additional square yard in excess of five yards will be boosted from $5 to $7.

The charge for surface restored will be based on area to nearest one-tenth square yard with a minimum charge of $12 instead of $9. The amount to be collected for lower types of improved surface will be increased from $3 to $5 for each square yard. The minimum charge also will be increased from $3 to $5 under the new scale. All other charges in the Department's schedule for special occupancy permits will remain unchanged.

Find Fire Loss Was Not Covered By Insurance

Blaze At New Wilmington Caused Loss Of $8,000: Other Town News

NEW WILMINGTON, April 29.—Discovery that the barn and contents on the Fred Ruby farm, just east of the science hall which were destroyed by fire last Friday morning, were not covered by insurance has brought real tragedy in the parties involved.

The barn and half the contents were owned by Mr. Ruby while Carlyle McCrumb owner half the contents. He works the farm on shares.

The fire broke out at 5 a.m. from an undetermined cause and the barn was burned to the ground. Four head of cattle, a number of sows and their litters, machinery valued at $1,000, and 125 bushels of wheat were destroyed. Fortunately, a number of horses were permitted to remain in the pasture field for the night.

The loss was estimated between $7,000 and $8,000.

Mr. Ruby first thought the barn was covered by insurance but investigation revealed that the policy covered another barn about 50 yards away.

William Barbe, representative of the high school who will contest in vocal solo at the district high school music-forensics at Oil City, will have good audience support. All students who represented the will attend as a reward for their school in the Lawrence county meet work.

Those invited to Oil City are: Alice Frew, Joan Thomas, Donna Womer, Carol Wilson, Ralph Buchanan, Wallace Downs, Robert Whitman, Martha Rainey, Johanna Herbst, Donna Barbe, Lotta Veazey, Dorothy Foster, Mary Ann Herbst and Ann Harris.

The annual spring picnic at the high school will be held April 28 at Idora Park. It will be an all-day affair for students from the 7th to 12th grades. A number of other district schools will hold their picnics there the same day.

Tired, "All-In"—Listless Feeling Brought To Halt

As Vibrant Energy Is Released To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Do you get down in the morning still tired, feel down-and-out all day? Have you checked-up on your blood strength lately? Overwork, undue worry, cold, flu or other illness often wear down the red-blood-cells.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juices when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy glow in your skin—fresh, full, out-below places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sound Energy.

Find Fire Loss Was Not Covered By Insurance

Blaze At New Wilmington Caused Loss Of $5,000; Other Town News

NEW WILMINGTON, April 29.—Discovery that the barn and contents on the Fred Ruby farm, just east of the science hall which were destroyed by fire last Friday morning, were not covered by insurance has brought real tragedy in the parties involved.

The barn and half the contents were owned by Mr. Ruby while Carlisle McCrumb owned half the contents. He works the farm on shares.

The fire broke out at 5 a.m. from an undetermined cause and the barn was burned to the ground. Four head of cattle, a number of sows and their litters, machinery valued at $1,000, and 125 bushels of wheat were destroyed. Fortunately, a number of horses were permitted to remain in the pasture field for the night.

The loss was estimated between $7,000 and $8,000. Mr. Ruby first thought the barn was covered by insurance but investigation revealed that the policy covered another barn about 50 yards away.

William Barbe, representative of the high school who will contest in vocal solo at the district high school music-forests at Oil City, will have good audience support. All students who represented the will attend as a reward for their school in the Lawrence county meet work.

Those invited to Oil City are: Alice Frew, Joan Thomas, Donna Warner, Carol Wilson, Ralph Buchanan, Wallace Downs, Robert Whitman, Martha Rainey, Johanna Herbst, Donna Barbe, Lolla Vezey, Dorothy Foster, Mary Ann Herbst and Ann Harris.

The annual spring picnic at the high school will be held April 28 at Idora Park. It will be an all-day affair for students from the 7th to 12th grades. A number of other district schools will hold their picnics there the same day.

Lyman Ringbloom has been named manager of the local entry in the North County League. About 30 young men have been working out each evening under Ringbloom's direction. The season opens May 10.

State Federation Of Labor To Meet

HARRISBURG, April 29.—(INS) — Delegates representing more than half a million members of the AFL will convene in Harrisburg Sunday for the 46th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of labor.

President James L. McDevitt announced today that more than 1000 delegates and visitors are slated to attend the week-long sessions.

Highlighting the convention, described as the "most momentous" in PFL history, will be an extensive study of the federation's political education program and 1948 election campaign procedures. PFL executive officers have pledged to seek repeal of the "Taft-Hartley" act through defeat at the polls of Pennsylvania Congressmen who who aided in enactment of the labor-curbing bill.

Tired, "All-In"—Listless Feeling Brought To Halt

As Vibrant Energy is Released To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Do you get up in the mornings still tired, feel down-and-out all day? Have you checked up on your blood strength lately? Overwork, undue worry, cold, flu or other illness often wears down the red-blood-cells.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that 858 Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the 858 Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, 858 Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky at the sight of food and give off this sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood-cells on 858 Tonic now. A vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh—fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. 858 Tonic helps build sturdy blood.

Water From Mine Covers Highway

When the embankment of a coal mine gave way before the force of water which had collected in the pit at 12:30 p. m. yesterday, a wall of water, estimated at 10 feet deep, flowed across the property of John B. Moscatelli, R. D. 1, and washed considerable dirt and stone upon Hog Hollow road, according to State police. The mine, which has been idle for some time, is on the Barron farm.

Seventh Ward

Methodists Will Launch Family Week

Trustees Check Church Building For Necessary Repairs And Alterations

At the Sunday morning service, at 11 o'clock, 'Family Week' will be launched at Mahoning Methodist church. There will be a special sermon by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Petrie, on the theme, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them". On Monday evening, the board of trustees met in the church for a business session, and checked up the building as to necessary repairs and alterations during the summer months. M. A. Boyd presided.

Civic Club Plans Membership Drive

Members of Seventh Ward Civic club met on Tuesday at noon, for weekly business session, Manning Weller in charge. It was decided to put on a membership drive for new members, and stir up more interest and activity. There was a good crowd at last Friday's 'Fun Night', and the club thanks all that assisted on that occasion; there will be another session at Mahoning school, Friday evening. It has been noticed that several places along Rabbit Way, and along the railroad tracks have been cleaned up, and it is requested that folks of the ward cooperate by throwing no more garbage in those localities. The Golden Gift of Friendship

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

Scripture—1 Samuel 18-20, 11

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL. In these troublous times, when the world seethes with suspicion and animosity and aggression casts its shadow on the future, it is good to contemplate the story of the fine friendship of two Israelites—David and Jonathan. It is a tale of one of the greatest friendships in history of two men—one a simple shepherd lad; the other the son of a king.

Stories such as these renew our faith in mankind and his ultimate redemption, discounting the stories of crime, violence, sadism with which our minds have been saturated in the last decade and our souls sickened.

After David had slain the Philistine giant, Goliath, with his sling shot, and the enemies of Israel had fled, King Saul took the shepherd boy hero into his own royal household, where Saul's son, Jonathan, and David became fast friends. Jonathan, to show his friendship, "stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow and girdle."

In spite of these honors, David behaved wisely and modestly. One day, however, the Israelites women came out of the cities to greet the king, singing and dancing, but the words they sang did not please the King Saul: "Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands."

Saul knew he had once angered the Lord, which made him jealous and suspicious that his throne might be taken away. The Lord, the king realized, was with this shepherd youth who had slain a giant and delivered Israel from her enemies. Therefore, jealousy, born of the women's words, and fear for his throne, made Saul hate David and determine to kill him. Saul heaped honors on David, however, while he secretly planned his murder. He made David his son-in-law and when he saw that his daughter, Michal, David's wife, loved him, he hoped she would prove a snare by which to trap David to his death. She failed him, however. He also spoke to Jonathan and all the servants that he meant to kill him.

Jonathan told David to hide in a field and he would come there with his father and talk to him to find out how matters lay. David did so and when Saul and Jonathan came to the field Jonathan reasoned with his father, reminding him of how much David had done for him, and he so softened his father's heart that, for the time being, the king gave up his evil plot.

Not for long was King Saul freed from the evil spirit which prompted him to kill this youth. One day, as David was playing his harp in Saul's presence to exorcise this demon within the king, Saul hurled his javelin at David, but missed. David fled into hiding.

David could not understand why Saul hated him and sought to harm him. Jonathan tried to comfort his friend and promised to warn him when he was in danger. Jonathan contrived a way to let David know how Saul felt about him and whether it was safe to continue at court.

The king's son would take a boy to a field where David was hiding and shoot three arrows into the field. He would then send the boy to pick them up. If the arrows fell between David and the boy, the news was good and David could stay; if they went beyond, David should flee.

David, hidden, got the message. "The arrows are beyond thee," and fled for his life; but not before Jonathan and he had pledged eternal friendship.

Jonathan risked his father's wrath in his fidelity to David, and suffered as a consequence. The relentless Saul pursued the exiled David from place to place, but never caught him.

At last, the Philistines attacked Israel again with a mighty army, and this time there was no David to help his people. In the terrific fighting Jonathan was killed and Saul sorely wounded.

Seeing his men flee from the Philistines and knowing the battle was lost, Saul commanded his armor bearer to kill him, but he refused so Saul fell upon his own sword and died.

When David heard the dreadful news he tore his clothes and wept, mourning for his friend. "My brother Jonathan, thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women," cried the stricken man.

Down the ages this friendship has been a beautiful legend and an ideal of friendship between two human beings. If the spirit of David and Jonathan should spread through the nations of the earth, that other ideal—world friendship—would be realized. Let us pray for it and work toward it.

School Teachers Home From Music Meet At Detroit

Representatives Of City Schools Attend National Music Educators Conference

Robert Duff, director of vocal music in the New Castle schools; Miss Pearl Gibbons of North street school; Miss Ruth Weir of Pollock school; Miss Esther Gibbons of Ben Franklin Junior high and Mrs. Emma Richards of Thaddeus Stevens with Mrs. Robert Duff, have returned from Detroit, Mich., where they were in attendance at the Music Educators National Conference which was in session there during the past week. During their visit in Detroit to attend the conference which drew some 7,000 music educators from all parts of the world, the New Castle group heard many outstanding musical groups and personalities. Among the groups heard were the Wayne University chorus, Drake University choir, Detroit Symphony orchestra and the Detroit Faculty Symphony orchestra. Representatives from all over the world were present including teachers from South and Central America, Cuba, Poland and Hawaii. Outstanding was the observance of Detroit and Michigan nights when students from all over the state took part in the conference. It is planned to present many of the ideas obtained from the parley before a session of the music teachers of the New Castle schools at an early date. Mr. Duff will be in charge of the meeting.

Stassen Gains No Advantage With Delegates

Governor Duff Minimizes Significance Of Write-In Lead In Primary Vote

By JOHN PAGET (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
HARRISBURG, April 29.—Harold E. Stassen's victory in Pennsylvania's write-in presidential "popularity contest" appears today to have won him no advantage with the state's Republican convention delegation. Gov. James H. Duff, who will be chairman, has minimized the significance of the 6000 vote lead of the youthful ex-governor of Minnesota and emphasized it will carry no weight with the Keystone State Convention group which he has fought to keep unpledged. The governor has made it plain that, for all practical purposes, he considers the write-ins during the primary election only an indication that the voters have no outstanding choice for president. Ten received 670 votes or over on the Republican ticket. Duff magnified the popularity of U. S. Sen. Arthur S. Vandenberg, who polled only 7,313 votes for sixth place compared with the 67,830 drawn by Stassen. The governor is believed to prefer the foreign affairs expert to other presidential candidates and reportedly is willing to swing Pennsylvania's votes his way. He attributed Vandenberg's poor showing to the failure of the public to understand that he is available and claimed an interest in him exists in the state. Duff has declared himself for U. S. Sen. Edward Martin as an early ballot "favorite son" candidate for president.

St. Joseph's Sodality members will attend mass in a body at 8 o'clock, Sunday morning, and will receive Holy Communion in a body in St. Joseph's church.

Two New Suspects In Reuther Case

DETROIT, April 29.—(INS)—Two men who allegedly rented a red Ford automobile a few hours before UAW-CIO President Walter Reuther was shot April 20 are being held today by Detroit police. A red Ford sedan, which neighbors saw speeding away from the Reuther home immediately after the shotgun attack, has been the only tangible clue available to police. Chief of Detectives Jack Harvill said the two men were given lie detector tests last night, and added the results were "not satisfactory." He refused to identify the two new suspects, but indicated they were not union men.

Urge Re-Examination Of 10,000 Officers On Retirement Lists

WASHINGTON, April 29.—(INS)—A house committee recommended today that approximately 10,000 military officers who have been given physical or disability retirement since Jan. 1, 1944, will be re-examined.

The recommendations were made by a house armed service subcommittee which at the same time said an investigation of retirements, including that of Maj. Gen. Bennett Meyers, showed no evidence of fraud.

The group suggested that officers who were disabled in combat or in war duty or whose disability is obviously permanent should be excused from a recheck. They number approximately 26,000 men.

The proposed re-examination plan would apply to both regular and non-regular personnel.

In its effort, the subcommittee, headed by Rep. Eilston (R) Ohio, suggested that all retired regular officers who are found to have recovered from their disability be returned to the active list in their last active-duty grade.

CATHOLIC MOTHER OF YEAR IS NAMED

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—(INS)—A mother of 15 children, including four priests and three nuns, has been named the Catholic mother of 1948 by the National Catholic conference on family life.

The honor was conferred on Mrs. Richard T. McSorley, wife of a Philadelphia attorney. She will be presented with the medal of the Shrine of Christian Motherhood on Mother's Day, May 9, in St. Augustine, Fla.

State Movie Film Being Televised

HARRISBURG — "Pennsylvania Pleasureland," a 16 mm colored sound motion picture produced by the State Department of Commerce and Recreation Bureau was used by Television Station WTVT, Richmond, Virginia, April 25 on several television broadcasts, according to the department.

Arrangements are also being made by the bureau for telecasting this same film over a number of other stations in the East. The film was produced last October by the bureau with the assistance of the Milton picture and recording studios of The Pennsylvania State College. All the photography was done by the bureau's own cameramen. The film depicts many of the vacation, scenic and historic sites of the Keystone State and has been widely in use since produced last autumn.

Extensive Damage To Fruit Trees

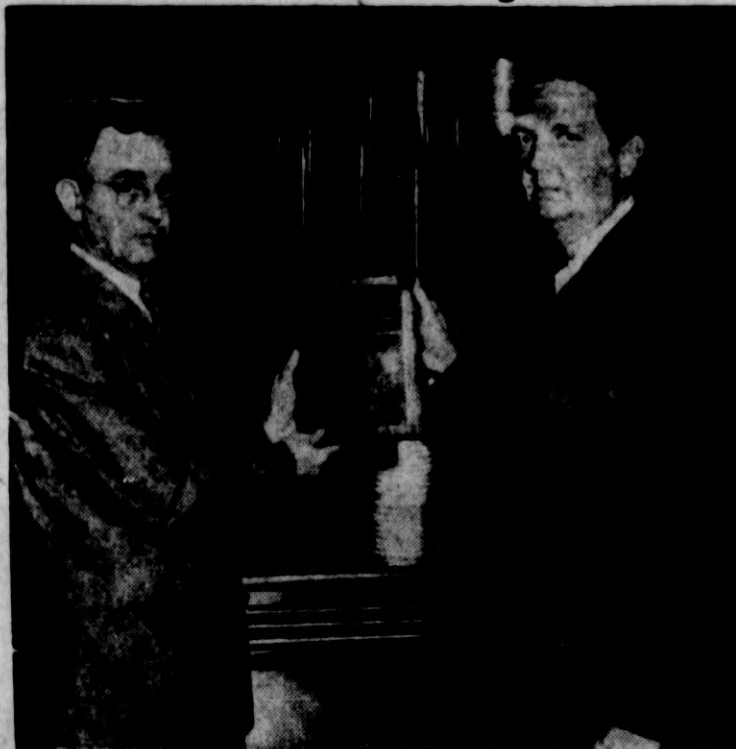

HARRISBURG, April 29.—(INS)—The State Agriculture department today said Pennsylvania fruit growers have reported extensive damage to low lying orchards by the severe winter and heavy spring frosts.

Cherries, especially the sweet varieties, suffered widespread damage except in northern counties, the department reported. Damage was confined largely to orchards in low-lying areas in the Adams fruit growing area.

The department's weekly federal-state report showed that plowing for corn advanced greatly in eastern areas. Soils were too wet for plowing in Western Pennsylvania.

Most tobacco beds are seeded and oats and early potato plantings well advanced.

Receive National Recognition

Owen Brannigan, left, manager of the Shenango Pottery cafeteria and James M. Smith Jr., are shown here holding the plaque awarded the pottery cafeteria at the National Restaurant Association convention in Cleveland, O. The local cafeteria stood out as the best in a field of contestants from industry all over the United States.

Judged the finest industrial restaurant in a nation-wide competition, the restaurant of the Shenango Pottery has been awarded a plaque by Institutions Magazine, a magazine devoted to industrial institutions over the nation. The contest was sponsored by the National Restaurant association. The award was made at the recent meeting of the association held in Cleveland.

Industrial restaurants over the entire country were entered in the competition. Twelve points were considered in the judging of

Believe Third Round Of Wage Boosts Halted

NEW YORK, April 29.—(INS)—The magazine Iron Age said today that the refusal of U. S. Steel Corp. to raise wages, coincident with a price cut in steel, has stopped the third round of wage increases in the heavy industries.

It observed that no other steel company will raise wages for the simple reason that in the past they have followed Big Steel.

No Big Increases

Turning to the auto industry, Iron Age noted that raises in the automotive industry have not had the prestige for the union that the steel industry increases have had.

It said that despite the possibility of strikes in the motor car field, it looked as though there may be no raises of any kind there.

Meantime, the return of the striking coal miners has enabled the steel ingot rate to advance this week to 85 percent of capacity, up seven points from last week's revised rate of 78 percent.

Pennsylvania Vote Encourages Stassen

TRENTON, N. J., April 29.—(INS)—Harold E. Stassen believes his victory in Tuesday's Pennsylvania primary "may well turn out to be one of the key events in the final nomination" at the Republican national convention in Philadelphia.

The former Minnesota governor arrived yesterday at Mercer airport for speeches and conferences in New Jersey.

Greatly Encouraged

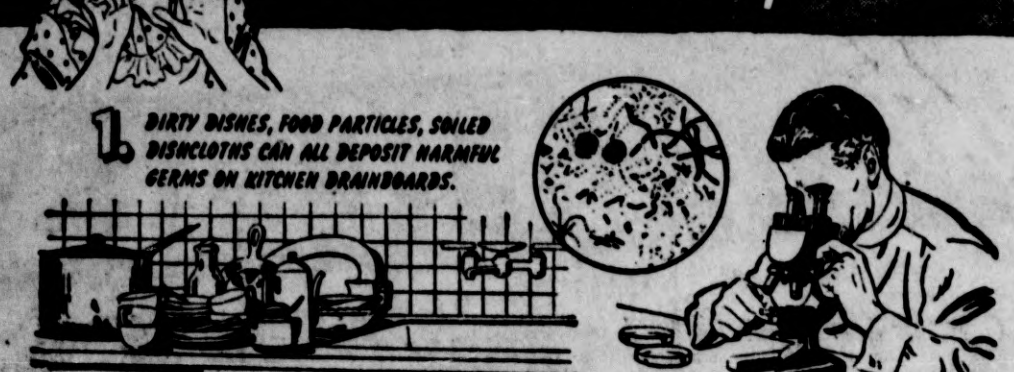

"We are tremendously encouraged by the Pennsylvania vote," Stassen said. He added:

"I consider that it indicates that the industrial sections are turning to us in the same way that the rural sections are supporting us in Nebraska and Wisconsin.

"This is the first showing of an industrial state and I am greatly encouraged."

Urge Re-Examination Of 10,000 Officers On Retirement Lists

WASHINGTON, April 29.—(INS)—A house committee recommended today that approximately 10,000 military officers who have been given physical or disability retirement since Jan. 1, 1944, will be re-examined.

The recommendations were made by a house armed services subcommittee which at the same time said an investigation of retirements, including that of Maj. Gen. Bennett Meyers, showed no evidence of fraud.

The group suggested that officers who were disabled in combat or in war duty or whose disability is obviously permanent should be excused from a recheck. They number approximately 25,000 men.

The proposed re-examination plan would apply to both regular and non-regular personnel.

In its effort, the subcommittee, headed by Rep. Elston (R) Ohio, suggested that all retired regular officers who are found to have recovered from their disability be returned to the active list in their last active-duty grade.

CATHOLIC MOTHER OF YEAR IS NAMED

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—(INS)—A mother of 15 children, including four priests and three nuns, has been named the Catholic mother of 1948 by the National Catholic conference on family life.

The honor was conferred on Mrs. Richard T. McMorley, wife of a Philadelphia attorney. She will be presented with the medal of the Shrine of Christian Motherhood on Mother's Day, May 9, in St. Augustine, Fla.

State Movie Film Being Televised

HARRISBURG.—"Pennsylvania Pleasureland," a 16 mm. colored sound motion picture produced by the State Department of Commerce and Recreation Bureau was used by Television Station WTVT, Richmond, Virginia, April 25 on several television broadcasts, according to the department.

Arrangements are also being made by the bureau for telecasting this same film over a number of other stations in the East. The film was produced last October by the bureau with the assistance of the Milton picture and recording studios of The Pennsylvania State College. All the photography was done by the bureau's own cameramen. The film depicts many of the vacation, scenic and historic sites of the Keystone State and has been widely in use since produced last autumn.

Extensive Damage To Fruit Trees

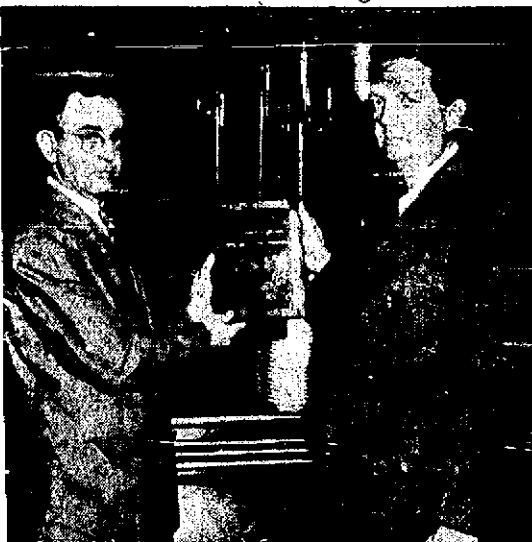

HARRISBURG, April 29.—(INS)—The State Agriculture department today said Pennsylvania fruit growers have reported extensive damage to low lying orchards by the severe winter and heavy spring frosts.

Cherries, especially the sweet varieties, suffered widespread damage except in northern counties, the department reported. Damage was confined largely to orchards in low-lying areas in the Adams fruit growing area.

The department's weekly federal-state report showed that plowing for corn advanced greatly in eastern areas. Soils were too wet for plowing in Western Pennsylvania.

Most tobacco beds are seeded and oats and early potato plantings well advanced.

Receive National Recognition

Owen Brannigan, left, manager of the Shenango Pottery cafeteria and James M. Smith Jr., are shown here holding the plaque awarded the pottery cafeteria at the National Restaurant Association convention in Cleveland, O. The local cafeteria stood out as the best in a field of contestants from industry all over the United States.

Judged the finest industrial restaurant in a nation-wide competition, the restaurant of the Shenango Pottery has been awarded a plaque by Institutions Magazine, a magazine devoted to industrial institutions over the nation. The contest was sponsored by the National Restaurant Association.

The award was made at the recent meeting of the association held in Cleveland.

Industrial restaurants over the entire country were entered in the competition. Twelve points were considered in the judging of

Believe Third Round Of Wage Boosts Halted

NEW YORK, April 29.—(INS)—The magazine Iron Age said today that the refusal of U. S. Steel Corp. to raise wages, coincident with a price cut in steel, has stopped the third round of wage increases in the heavy industries.

It observed that no other steel company will raise wages for the simple reason that in the past they have followed Big Steel.

No Big Increases

Turning to the auto industry, Iron Age noted that raises in the automotive industry have not had the prestige for the union that the steel industry increases have had.

It said that despite the possibility of strikes in the motor car field, it looked as though there may be no raises of any kind there.

Meantime, the return of the striking coal miners has enabled the steel plant rate to advance this week to 85 percent of capacity, up seven points from last week's revised rate of 78 percent.

Pennsylvania Vote Encourages Stassen

THRENTON, N. J., April 29.—(INS)—Harold E. Stassen believes his victory in Tuesday's Pennsylvania primary "may well turn out to be one of the key events in the final nomination" at the Republican national convention in Philadelphia.

The former Minnesota governor arrived yesterday at Mercer airport for speeches and conferences in New Jersey.

Greatly Encouraged

"We are tremendously encouraged by the Pennsylvania vote," Stassen said. He added:

"Consider that it indicates that the industrial sections are turning to us in the same way that the rural sections are supporting us in Nebraska and Wisconsin."

"This is the first showing of an industrial state and I am greatly encouraged."

Honor Athletes At St. Mary's Church

St. Mary's church did a swell job last night of highlighting the "youth movement" in the field of sport, when 160 persons gathered in the church basement and enjoyed to the fullest extent the father and sons football and basketball banquet.

For almost three hours the gathered men and boys sat spellbound as they heard the youth of America extolled. They heard from the lips of three Lawrence county high school football and basketball coaches the vast benefits to be derived from athletics in the building of minds and bodies.

Tribute To Champions

The occasion, one of the most memorable in the history of St. Mary's church, served as a means of expressing the tribute of the church to the youngsters who brought great honor to the church in the field of sport, the football championship of the Catholic grade schools of New Castle, and other honors.

The ladies of St. Mary's church prepared and served the banquet in a manner that left little to be desired in the way of food or service. The meal consisted of baked ham and everything that goes with this delectable dish, from fruit juice to ice cream and cookies.

The banquet began at 6:30 o'clock with Rev. Fr. Francis King intoning the blessing. Following the meal, Leo Carrigan took over as toastmaster and this youngster did a grand job. It was his first experience at toastmastering but it won't be his last, by any means.

The St. Mary's orchestra rendered several pleasing numbers with plenty of poise.

Bridenbaugh Main Speaker

First to speak was Coach Charles James of Union High, followed by Coach Eddie Nalms of Shenango, both coaches giving the boys plenty of good solid advice as to continuing their play of football, basketball and baseball.

The veteran coach, Phil Bridenbaugh of New Castle High, was next and the "Old Fox" was his usual self as he extolled the athletic program in the school and urged that the boys take up sports as a means of building bodies and minds for bigger things in life.

It was a typical Bridenbaugh speech, to the point and filled with good sound logic. He was given quite an ovation as he sat down after reading a poem written by the late Fielding H. Yost, onetime football coach at the University of Michigan.

Big Speaking Program

Three St. Mary's youngsters "stole the show" as they gave their well prepared speeches—Richard Marshall speaking for the Minums basketball team, Leo McCummins for the grade school basketball team and Robert Snyder for the grade school championship football team. They had perfect poise.

Others on the speaking program were: Bernard Hanlon, city treasurer, who recalled St. Mary's football 40 years ago and named three of them—Bill Carlin, John Maher and William Howley. John Maher for the church committee talked briefly and to the point; Joe Howey, football coach, and Harry Marshall, basketball coach; Charles "Bugs" Walther, News sports writer, an Rev. Fr. Francis King, the guiding spirit behind the St. Mary's athletic program, who waxed eloquent in his praise of the fathers and sons present, saying this marks a new era in St. Mary's history.

The final part of the program was given over to Rev. Fr. Francis McCarter, pastor of St. Mary's church, who delivered a fine talk on the athletic program and said: "Any money spent for athletics and from which boys derive benefits is well spent." He gave his wholehearted support to the athletic program that has had such a great start at St. Mary's.

In concluding Fr. McCarter gave

St. Mary's church did a swell job last night of highlighting the "youth movement" in the field of sport, when 160 persons gathered in the church basement and enjoyed to the fullest extent the father and sons football and basketball banquet.

For almost three hours the gathered men and boys sat spellbound as they heard the youth of America extolled. They heard from the lips of three Lawrence county high school football and basketball coaches the vast benefits to be derived from athletics in the building of minds and bodies.

Tribute To Champions
The occasion, one of the most memorable in the history of St. Mary's church, served as a means of expressing the tribute of the church to the youngsters who brought great honor to the church in the field of sport, the football championship of the Catholic grade schools of New Castle, and other honors.

The ladies of St. Mary's church prepared and served the banquet in a manner that left little to be desired in the way of food or service. The meal consisted of baked ham and everything that goes with this delectable dish, from fruit juice to ice cream and waffles.

The banquet began at 6:30 o'clock with Rev. Fr. Francis King intoning the blessing. Following the meal, Leo Carrigan took over as toastmaster and this youngster did a grand job. It was his first experience at toastmastering but it won't be his last, by any means.

The St. Mary's orchestra rendered several pleasing numbers with plenty of applause.

Bridenbaugh Main Speaker
First to speak was Coach Charles James of Union High, followed by Coach Eddie Nalick of Shenango, both coaches giving the boys plenty of good solid advice as to continuing their play of football, basketball and baseball.

The veteran coach, Phil Bridenbaugh of New Castle High, was next and the "Old Fox" was his usual self as he extolled the athletic program in the school and urged that the boys take up sports as a means of building bodies and minds for bigger things in life.

It was a typical Bridenbaugh speech, to the point and filled with good sound logic. He was given quite an ovation as he sat down.

after reading a poem written by the late Fielding H. Yost, onetime football coach at the University of Michigan.

Big Speaking Program
Three St. Mary's youngsters "stole the show" as they gave their well prepared speeches—Richard Marshall speaking for the Alumnus basketball team, Leo McCummins for the grade school basketball team and Robert Snyder for the grade school championship football team. They had perfect poise.

Others on the speaking program were: Bernard Hanlon, city treasurer, who recalled St. Mary's football 40 years ago and named three of them—Bill Carlin, John Maher and William Howley, John Maher for the church committee talked briefly and to the point; Joe Howey, football coach, and Harry Marshall, basketball coach; Charles "Bugs" Walther, News sports writer, an Rev. Fr. Francis King, the guiding spirit behind the St. Mary's athletic program, who waxed eloquent in his praise of the fathers and sons present, saying this marks a new era in St. Mary's history.

The final part of the program was given over to Rev. Fr. Francis McCarter, pastor of St. Mary's church, who delivered a fine talk on the athletic program and said: "Any money spent for athletics and from which boys derive benefits is well spent." He gave his wholehearted support to the athletic program that has had such a great start at St. Mary's.

In concluding Fr. McCarter gave out the letters to the young men who had just earned them in football and basketball.

The following boys received both football and basketball letters: Leo McCummins, captain of basketball team; David McGonigle, James Kearns, Richard Fee, Edward Rogan, Robert Hart, Francis Rogan.

The following received just basketball letters: Harry Marshall, Charles McCarthy, John Kennedy, and manager of both football and basketball teams, James Murphy.

Rev. Fr. Francis Gallagher closed the well staged event with the benediction.

Let's Try to Stop Rising Costs

IN AN ENDEAVOR to aid in halting further advances in living costs, U. S. Steel will decrease certain steel prices on May 1, 1948, to the extent of $25,000,000 annually, these price reductions being applicable so far as possible to steel products related to the cost of living.

Announcement of these price reductions was made on April 22, 1948, concurrently with the denial by U. S. Steel of the request of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO) for a "substantial wage increase."

United States Steel believes that costs and prices in general are too high for the good of the nation. It shares the firm conviction that American industry and labor should cooperatively do everything in their power to avoid further increases in costs, which, if permitted to occur, must result in higher prices for almost everything we buy. Certainly the best interests of all of our people will not be served by a further lowering in the purchasing power of the dollar.

We are hopeful that our action in reducing the prices of a number of steel products associated with the cost of living may have a beneficial effect throughout the nation and may be helpful in bringing about an early stabilization or reduction in the cost of living. If this should prove to be the outcome, everyone in this country will benefit. If, on the contrary, costs should continue to advance, then in fairness to our employees and to our stockholders we will have to consider at some later date the adequacy of both wages and steel prices under then-existing conditions.

Our answer to the Union was that the granting of its request for a "substantial wage increase" will not in the long run bring benefit to anyone, as it will lead to similar substantial wage increases in other industries and to higher prices generally. Such a wage increase would make necessary a general advance in our steel prices. We are unwilling so to increase steel prices at this time, as we believe this would be contrary to the best interests of the nation.

The Union's demand for a "substantial wage increase" was based on increases in the cost of living. The index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor, records an increase of 67.2% in the cost of living between 1940 and February, 1948. During that same period, average straight-time hourly earnings of our steel workers rose 73.3%; their average actual hourly earnings advanced 81.3% and their average actual weekly earnings advanced 91.7%. These advances are substantially in excess of the increase in the cost of living during that period.

If there is to be a halt in the surge of rising costs, there must be full and effective cooperation to this end on the part of every segment of our economy.

The Union's demand for a "substantial wage increase" was based on increases in the cost of living. The index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor, records an increase of 67.2% in the cost of living between 1940 and February, 1948. During that same period, average straight-time hourly earnings of our steel workers rose 73.3%; their average actual hourly earnings advanced 81.3% and their average actual weekly earnings advanced 91.7%. These advances are substantially in excess of the increase in the cost of living during that period.

If there is to be a halt in the surge of rising costs, there must be full and effective cooperation to this end on the part of every segment of our economy.

Let's Try to Stop Rising Costs

IN AN ENDEAVOR to aid in halting further advances in living costs, U. S. Steel will decrease certain steel prices on May 1, 1948, to the extent of $25,000,000 annually, these price reductions being applicable so far as possible to steel products related to the cost of living.

Announcement of these price reductions was made on April 22, 1948, concurrently with the denial by U. S. Steel of the request of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO) for a "substantial wage increase."

United States Steel believes that costs and prices in general are too high for the good of the nation. It shares the firm conviction that American industry and labor should cooperatively do everything in their power to avoid further increases in costs, which, if permitted to occur, must result in higher prices for almost everything we buy. Certainly the best interests of all of our people will not be served by a further lowering in the purchasing power of the dollar.

We are hopeful that our action in reducing the prices of a number of steel products associated with the cost of living may have a beneficial effect throughout the nation and may be helpful in bringing about an early stabilization or reduction in the cost of living. If this should prove to be the outcome, everyone in this country will benefit. If, on the contrary, costs should continue to advance, then in fairness to our employees and to our stockholders we will have to consider at some later date the adequacy of both wages and steel prices under then-existing conditions.

Our answer to the Union was that the granting of its request for a "substantial wage increase" will not in the long run bring benefit to anyone, as it will lead to similar substantial wage increases in other industries and to higher prices generally. Such a wage increase would make necessary a general advance in our steel prices. We are unwilling so to increase steel prices at this time, as we believe this would be contrary to the best interests of the nation.

The Union's demand for a "substantial wage increase" was based on increases in the cost of living. The index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor, records an increase of 67.2% in the cost of living between 1940 and February, 1948. During that same period, average straight-time hourly earnings of our steel workers rose 73.3%; their average actual hourly earnings advanced 81.3% and their average actual weekly earnings advanced 91.7%. These advances are substantially in excess of the increase in the cost of living during that period.

If there is to be a halt in the surge of rising costs, there must be full and effective cooperation to this end on the part of every segment of our economy.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, April 29.—(INS)—A guy naturally hates to take orders from a doll. That's why no females are currently plying the megaphone trade in a cinema city. That is a fact. It also is the sentiment of one of Hollywood's most important dialogue directors.

Her name is Phyllis Laughton. Her husband, George Seaton, wrote and directed "Miracle On 34th Street." Phyllis claimed one director in one family was an ample sufficiency.

Blonde Gives Tip

The slick-looking blonde, who should be an actress herself, added:

"Man's only chance to be boss is on the job. At home the poor fellows take orders from headquarters—meaning wife and mamma-in-law."

But the luscious Miss Laughton conceded other factors restrict movie directing to the male:

"Picture producers are deathly afraid to give women a chance. They think it is lousy business to trust a million dollar film budget to a girl."

"The theater has a few women directors. And on the stage you also find several female producers as Irene Selznick or Margaret Webster."

Pretty Fair Check
Miss Laughton currently is knocking down a king-size weekly stipend helping male director Mitchell Leisen supervise editing of a thing at Paramount called "Abigail, Dear Heart."

Leisen said her assistance has been so terrific (strictly a Hollywood phrase) that he wants to give the dame screen credit as "co-director" of the opus starring Claude Rains, MacDonald Carey and Wanda Hendrix.

Miss Laughton said:

"It always is rough for women to crash professional fields dominated by men. A writer or painter can sit home and create. Movie-making means high finance. Executives think a man can best handle large casts and crews where men are in the majority."

Why Not?

The Laughton lady was highly incensed when reminded that women cannot control cinema dollars. She termed that a hackneyed phrase, indeed.

"Look," she protested. "The studios constantly dish out expensive productions to untalented male directors. When the heck are they going to give the girls a chance?"

"In all of Hollywood there are exactly six gal film editors. None of them ever gets a chance to direct a movie. Yet some of our finest directors rose from the ranks from jobs as cutters."

Only two dames ever have achieved any sort of prominence as film directors—Dorothy Arzner and Lois Weber. Since before the war there hasn't been a single one. "Women have brains," insisted the pretty Miss Laughton. "Why shouldn't Hollywood take advantage of them?"

KIDNEYS
EXCESS ACIDS
Help 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes
Flush Out Poisons and Waste

If you have an excess of acids in your blood, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may be overworked. These tiny filters and tubes are working day and night to help Nature rid your system of excess acids and poisonous waste. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it causes a nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Kidneys may need help the same as how, so ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a standard diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 10 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

FISH HOOK MEN
NEW YORK, April 29.—Hundreds of fish that drank like—well, fish—hooked 15 men. A federal grand jury, with an assist from the finny guzzlers, indicted the men on charges of defrauding the government of $520,000 in alcohol taxes. They were accused of running old-fashioned stills in Orange and Dutchess counties. Their downfall came, Assistant

U. S. Attorney Robert Mitchell said, when they decided to dump their mash in a brook near an Orange county still, rather than carry it to the woods a little farther away.

The mash killed so many fish that local fishermen figured something was fishy. Their complaints put agents on the trail and led to a raid on the stills.

PENTAGON FLOORING
The Pentagon building in Washington was floored with asphalt tile because of the recognized wearing resistant qualities of this material and easy maintenance.

Over 40,000,000 rooms have been decorated with

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEHL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, April 29.—(INS)—A guy naturally hates to take orders from a doll. That's why no females are currently plying the megaphone trade in a cinema city.

That is a fact. It also is the sentiment of one of Hollywood's most important dialogue directors.

Her name is Phyllis Laughton. Her husband, George Seaton, wrote and directed "Miracle On 34th Street." Phyllis claimed one director in one family was an ample sufficiency.

Blonde Gives Tip
The slick-looking blonde, who should be an actress herself, added:

"Man's only chance to be boss is on the job. At home the poor fellows take orders from headquarters—meaning, wife and mamma-in-law."

But the luscious Miss Laughton conceded other factors restrict movie directing to the male:

"Picture producers are deathly afraid to give women a chance. They think it is lousy business to trust a million dollar film budget to a girl."

"The theater has a few women directors. And on the stage you also find several female producers such as Irene Selznick or Margaret Webster."

Pretty Fair Check
Miss Laughton, currently is knocking down a king-size weekly stipend helping male director Mitchell Leisen supervise editing of a thing at Paramount called "Abigail, Dear Heart."

Leisen said her assistance has been so terrific (strictly a Hollywood phrase) that he wants to give the dame screen credit as "co-director" of the opus starring Claude Rains, MacDonald Carey and Wanda Hendrix.

"It always is rough for women to crash professional fields dominated by men. A writer or painter can sit home and create. Movie-making means high finance. Executives think a man can best handle large casts and crews where men are in the majority."

Why Not?
The Laughton lady was highly incensed when reminded that women cannot control cinema dollars. She termed that a hackneyed phrase, indeed.

"Look," she protested, "The studios constantly dish out expensive productions to untalented male directors. When the heck are they going to give the girls a chance?"

"In all of Hollywood there are exactly six gal film editors. None of them ever gets a chance to direct a movie. Yet some of our finest directors rose from the ranks from jobs as cutters."

Only two dames ever have achieved any sort of prominence as film directors—Dorothy Arzner and Lois Weber. Since before the war there hasn't been a single one.

"Women have brains," insisted the pretty Miss Laughton, "Why shouldn't Hollywood take advantage of them?"

FISH HOOK MEN

NEW YORK, April 29.—Hundreds of fish that drank like—well, fish—hooked 15 men.

A federal grand jury, with an assist from the fanny gunders, indicted the men on charges of defrauding the government of $520,000 in alcohol taxes.

They were accused of running old-fashioned stills in Orange and Dutchess counties.

Their downfall came, Assistant

U. S. Attorney Robert Mitchell said, when they decided to dump their mash in a brook near an Orange county still, rather than carry it to the woods a little farther away.

The mash killed so many fish that local fishermen figured something was fishy.

Their complaints put agents on the trail and led to a raid on the stills.

KENTUCKY DERBY at Churchill Downs will be run Saturday, and already the trek toward Louisville has begun. Those who go there go not only to see the race but also to participate socially with each other, and the famous mint julep will have a prominent place on the race-goer's calendar. Today there came from Mrs. Jack Herbert, now in Miami, a missive. She has seen both Citation and Coaltown run, and in Miami, as here, there's a world of interest in the event. She writes: "Citation and Coaltown both are entered. I believe Coaltown may win, but I hope it will be Citation, for which I give my reason. I want Eddie Arcaro to ride the winner and he is 'up' on Citation. I think Pierson will ride Coaltown. Al Snider, who was drowned with two friends, while on a fishing trip last March, had replaced Doug Dodson who gave Arcaro such a poor ride. Snider was to ride Citation for Calumet Farms in the Derby. Arcaro was then engaged. As he is anxious to make this race his fourth Derby win, he chose to ride Citation instead of Coaltown, and said he would give Snider's widow half his purse. Winning the Derby means a purse of $80,000, and the jockey gets 10 percent, or $8,000, so Mrs. Snider would get $4,000. Warren Wright, owner of Citation, has stated he would match whatever Eddie donated. This is why I hope Citation wins, but I will not be surprised if Coaltown comes 'home' in front. Possibly, I have been too busy looking at the Calumet entries and have overlooked a dark horse." In conclusion Mrs. Herbert reports her husband, Jack, and she will return to New Wilmington about May 25, where Jack will resume his duties as life guard at the pool.

City Baseball league officials and managers will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at Carm DeLeone's place, West Washington street, where ground rules for all fields will be announced. The loop begins play May 9. . . . Frankie Moran is matched for a May bout with Freddie Mills at Ellwood City. . . . Tuesday night's storm swelled local streams thus handicapping trout. . . . Pee Wee Reese of the Dodgers is an impetuous chap. Having trouble with a fountain pen he tossed it out a bus window. . . . R. W. Horton was named president of the Meadville Bowling Association. . . . One of the inducements to attend is that should a motorist get a "flat", it will be fixed free by raceway attendants, which is something not to be sneezed at. . . . Indications are that Tommy Bell of Youngstown, has slipped much. He was beaten by Gerardo Gavilan, Cuban, at Philadelphia Bobby Bell, also of Youngstown, won his bout. He boxed at Flaherty field last summer.

Charles Has Quit
'Title Dreaming'No. 1 Light-Heavy Contender.
Training For Ray, Has
'Given Up Hope'

PITTSBURGH, April 20.—(INS)—Ezzard Charles, the No. 1 light-heavy contender, has "stopped dreaming about the championship."

Charles, in Pittsburgh to train for his May 7 bout against Elmer "Violent" Ray in Chicago, says that for two years he's been getting the run around.

From now on, the Cincinnati puncher is going to concentrate on each fight and let matters take their course.

Ezzard has nothing against Gus Lesnevich, the light heavyweight champ, who has been suspected in some quarters of trying to dodge Charles. Ezzard says:

"Can't Blame Guy"
"You can't blame the guy for taking fights with Billy Fox and Freddie Mills. He's getting good money for those fights, maybe more than he'd get if he fought me. No, I don't think Gus is trying to avoid me."

Charles is out for revenge in the twice postponed Ray fight. Violent was the last man to beat the Cincinnati belter, taking a split decision in Madison Square Garden last year.

The fight, which will be for the benefit of the parents of the late Sam Baroudi, who died after being knocked out by Charles in the same Chicago ring last February, was postponed when Charles developed a bad back.

The injury was definitely diagnosed by a Pittsburgh doctor today as a torn muscle in the back. The physician said it was coming along nicely and that Charles should be ready a week from Friday.

TOP-NOTCH QUINTS
CONTINUE TO FALL
IN DETROIT GAMES

DETROIT, April 20.—(INS)—Top-notch quintets continued to fall by the wayside today as the American Bowling Congress tournament entered its 50th day.

Optimistic fans have been waiting in vain for a spectacular breakthrough by one of the all-star teams. This year's meet, however, has proved a graveyard for the hopes of the high scorers.

When the final pin fell last night the present leaders still held their places.

NEW YORK, April 20.—(INS)—New York university and Hofstra college authorities have dismissed "professional" athletes from their college baseball teams today in keeping with the NCAA regulations.

Pitcher Roy Teasley and third baseman Tom Capozzi were ruled ineligible by athletic director Albert B. Nixon. He said there is evidence "of their participation in organized baseball."

George Kaiser, Hofstra outfielder, admitted to coach Jack Smith that in 1944 he played in "less than ten games" with Wellsville of the class D Pony league which embraces teams from New York and Pennsylvania.

Both NYU and Hofstra are members of the NCAA.

Night-Time Deer
Poachers To Get
Severe Penalties

HARRISBURG, April 20.—(INS)—An all-out campaign to crack down on night-time deer "poachers" in Pennsylvania was announced today by the State Game Commission.

Game officials announced plans to intensify prosecution of all hunters apprehended for killing deer at night by the use of automobiles and spotlights.

Penalties upon conviction will include seizure of automobiles and hunting equipment and stiff fines, according to the commission.

The intensified campaign was announced following the commission's successful prosecution of three Clarion county hunters charged with illegal killing and assisting in killing of four deer with the use of an automobile and spotlight September 20, 1947, near Marienville, Forest county.

The commission said Victor J. Niederreiter, of Marble, was found guilty of illegally shooting deer and was fined $400 and costs. In addition, his 1947 automobile and high-caliber rifle were confiscated.

The car, sixth to be seized for game law infractions, will be sold at auction, the commission said.

Two brothers accompanying Niederreiter, Leonard W. and Robert Shill, of Lucinda, R. D., each were fined $300 and costs for assisting in the unlawful slaughter.

The trio was apprehended by game agents after the commission began a general investigation of illegal deer kills in northwestern Pennsylvania in August, 1947.

Eagles Tenpin Banquet Success

Charles Rafferty, Elected President of League For 1948-49, Dance, Floor Show Enjoyed

Another successful Eagles club tenpin league season came to a conclusion last evening as over 150 bowlers, their wives and sweethearts, members of the junior and senior basketball teams, sat down to a steaming repast of chicken and everything that goes to make up a meal of this type, done up in A-1 fashion.

The dinner got under way at 6:30 o'clock with the vast crowd singing "God Bless America". The blessing was said by Len Krueger. The meal over Thomas Cunningham, head cook over as toastmaster and did a swell job of ribbing the speakers with his ready wit and humor.

Presidents Get Trophy
First to speak was J. D. Thompson, father of bowling at the Eagles. Next to speak was Andrew T. Venditte, president of the league, and at the conclusion of his remarks presented the championship trophy to the Presidents team, captained by John Lazar. Members of the championship team are: Dave Kalkauson, Dick Liberatori, Mickie Stenrich, Len Orrelli, Al Gizeulik, J. E. McCracken, and Ed Hoyland.

Len Krueger, secretary of the league, was next and gave a detailed report of the league activity the past year, and announced the ten high men to receive special awards for their fine bowling.

Elected New Officers
Henry Navarra, trustee of the Eagles, was called on and told how bowling and basketball was organized in the club. Chuck Wilson, WKST sports announcer, spoke briefly, and presented the trophy to the Eagles junior team, champions of the recent City-County tourney at the "Y", with Coach Hank Reed accepting the trophy.

Coach Bill Patton of the Eagles "Big Five" was also introduced and spoke briefly.

Announcement was made of the election of officers for the 1948-49 tenpin league as follows: President, Charles Rafferty; secretary, Len Krueger; treasurer, Joe Goelano.

The evening ended with a dance and floor show that was pleasing. Golf will now occupy the Eagles sports picture.

Injuries, Weather Steal Show In Majors

NEW YORK, April 29.—(INS)—Old man weather and old man injury entered as top-top "show stealers" today on the nation's big league baseball stage.

Of the two lightning intruders, the injury man impressed most with a three-star performance. Inclement weather caused postponement of five-eighths of the major league card, but the box-office loss was insignificant when compared to the injury toll.

Three Major League ballplayers—two star catchers and a much-needed pitcher—fell the rough touch of injury.

Ray Mueller, one-time "Iron man," tried to score on a short fly in the Chicago Cub-Cincinnati Red game and fractured his ankle with a dirt-ploughing slide.

The crack Redleg receiver had to be carried from the field, and it was announced that he has been placed on the disabled list, a roster for players who are inactive at least 60 days.

The Reds beat the Cubs 6 to 1 behind the six-hit slinging of Johnny Vandermeer, but they have lost a catcher who ranks among the National League's best. Ray Lagumanno probably will replace Mueller, but he hasn't the polish and poise of his first-string predecessor.

Cooper Had Bad Knee
Walker Cooper, who has been on a slugging rampage for the New York Giants, discovered that he has a "chip fracture" in his left knee, a condition that warrants several-day rest period. Cooper's knee also is sprained but doctors believe he will be back in harness by next Monday.

The third casualty is Harry Taylor, Brooklyn Dodgers' right hander, who may have an appendicitis condition. Taylor, winner of ten and loser of five in 1947, apparently had recovered from a sore arm contracted last year. If he is lost too long to the Brodies, who already are in last place, it will be a tough blow.

However, all was not inactivity on the big league front. Warren Spahn, Boston Braves' southpaw, pitched Philadelphia Phillies batters with two hits and faced only 28 men in riling up a 7 to 0 shut-out.

First Win Of Year
It was Spahn's first victory of the year in two attempts; made it three straight wins for the Braves; which has suzerain over two runs in the last 27 innings.

The Detroit Tigers put a halt to a five-game losing streak by pulverizing four St. Louis Browns hurlers for a 15-hit 9 to 4 victory. Virgil Trucks won his second game of the year, although Dizzy Trout relieved in the Browns' four-run eighth.

Outfielder Pat Mullin hit his first home run of the year in the sixth inning.

The rest of the major league schedule played to the tune of old man weather. He posted these reasons for postponement:

Plants vs. Dodgers, Inclement weather; Washington Senators vs. New York Yankees, cold weather; Boston Red Sox vs. Philadelphia Athletics, rain; Cleveland vs. Chicago White Sox, wet grounds; St. Louis Cardinals vs. Pittsburgh Pirates, (a night game) rain and cold weather.

Softball Umps Meet Tonight
The City softball umpires will meet tonight at the Castleton Hotel at 8 p.m. The league officers and team managers are invited to attend this meeting with the umpires.

This will be the last meeting of the umpires before the league starts on May 10. It is important that everybody attend so as to get last minute instructions.

Umpires Will Meet Tonight
There will be a meeting of the Lawrence County Umpires' association at the "Y" tonight at 8 o'clock. It was announced by President Albert Conti. All umpires are to report, as pairings will be made. Any manager wanting umpires can contact Nick Rotunno at phone 5024-H.

Bomber Launches Training

CHICAGO, April 29.—Joe Louis and his ample entourage are getting ready for the last big push—the champion's last training stretch for his last title defense—which starts Saturday at Great Bear lake in Michigan.

Great Bear lake is little more than 100 miles from Chicago as the bear walks, and it is reportedly one of the most secluded spots in the nation. As one salesman put it, "It would take J. Edgar Hoover and a pack of bloodhounds to locate the place."

Another wag was more succinct: "Don't worry about a thing, Joe. Walcott will never find you." At any rate, it is there, in the cold dawn of Saturday morn, that the world's heavyweight titlist is to begin serious preparatory operations for his June 23 stand against Jersey Joe Walcott.

Louis will run six miles in the morning, chop wood, hike, row boats, and run six miles in the evening.

That is the general program planned by Harry Mendel, Mr. five-by-six, who rolled in yesterday to announce "I've got Louis," which means he is doing the champ's publicity.

Tech Team Wins Loop Dux Title

Titular Series Climaxes Third Year; Circuit Now Has Eight Teams

The Tech team captained by H. Moresky clinched the title in the Penna. Tech pin bowling league when they defeated the Pitt team, winners of the second half, last night at the Castleton Alleys, 175 to 169.

This series climaxed the third year of the league, which has grown from a four to an eight team league. Chairman H. Ruzewich and Co-Chairman Sol Weiner are to be complimented for the splendid job that they have done in bringing the season to a successful close.

A banquet and prize award night is scheduled for Wednesday evening, May 12, at the Castleton Hotel, and all indications are that this party will surpass all previous parties, as the committee in charge have made plans for a full evening of fun and entertainment.

For the winning Tech team, Al Offstein, Mort Love, and Dr. Gerald Zieve, turned in fine scores. For the losers Lou Steiner, Sonny Kulkin and M. Becker were best.

Intensive Training Season Is Concluded

New Castle baseball fans who attend the opening game at P. J. Flaherty Field Friday night, to watch the New Castle Chiefs and Homestead Grays tangle, will see one of the finest baseball parks in this part of the country. The "play ball" cry tomorrow night goes up at 8:30 o'clock.

Another season of the national pastime will be under way in our fair city. Countless hundreds will be in the stands. The fans will marvel at the new concrete box seats, the concrete dugouts, and the raised bleachers, while the scribbles will be strictly interested in the new George "Bugs" Smith, general manager of the Chiefs says "Every thing is ready, including a snappy New Castle ball club."

After almost three weeks of intensive training the Chiefs will take the field with the following tentative lineup: Adla Hoch back of the plate, Jack Douth at first, Jimmy Muldoon at second, probably Jackie McCullough at short, Roy Maud at third, Player-Manager Bob Crow in left, Russ Myers in center, and Wally Hill or Walter Kitchen in right.

Vaillancourt May Start
On the mound will be Roger Vaillancourt, the left-handed French-Canadian fireball artist, at the start, with Ray Vincellette, Hugh Grimshaw, Bill Zuraw, Louis Busco, Stan Sobolak, and several others ready to take over. Smith and Crow will have the final say on who starts the game.

Inclement weather has handicapped the team the past few days from getting in their practice "licks," but nevertheless they are rarin' to go.

The Grays bank heavily on the services of their last year's pitching stars such as R. T. Walker, Bob Thurman, Willie Pope, Johnny Wright, Frank Thompson, Wilbur Fietus and Cecil Kaiser. Three new pitchers who have been added to the Grays roster are Willie Smith, Lefty Bell and Garnett Bankhead.

Bankhead At Short
The colorful Sam Bankhead is back at short with Clarence Bruce, sensational youngster of last year's Grays' team, at second and Buck Leonard, rated as one of the greatest Negro first basemen in the business, at first completing the double-play combination which pulled up many a double for the team last year.

Add to this combination the outfield composed of three of the hardest hitting fielders in Negro baseball today, Lascous Easter, 236-lb. slugger, who starred in the South American Winter league, holds down left field, Luis Marquez (Puerto Rican) who led both the Negro National and American leagues in batting with an average of .417 last year, in centerfield. To complete the outfield the Grays have Bobby Thurman in right field, who is considered one of the most dangerous long hitters in baseball today. So it is easy to see why fans all over the country are anxious to see this year's Homestead Grays in action.

Have Good Catchers
Behind the bat will be Eulham Napier, Robert Gaslon and to help out will be a new face, that of Victor Sosa, sensational Cuban catcher recently obtained from the Maritima team, a member of the Cuban Winter league. Sosa won the Cuban championship for batting with an average of .413 in 1946 and should prove a lot of help in the Grays lineup.

Bob Boston, young star from East Liverpool, O., seems to have the inside track for third base this season, since the Homestead team no longer has the service of How-

Chiefs-Universals To Battle Tonight

Tonight at 6 o'clock at the Washington High field, the Universal Pottery will play the New Castle Chiefs of the Mid-Atlantic league in another exhibition game. The Pottery defeated the Chiefs in an exhibition game last Sunday 4 to 2. The Chiefs will be on the war-path tonight. Eddie Stewart will be on the hill for the Universals, with Zuraw and Grimshaw ready for duty for the New Castle team.

High Athletes Dining Tonight

George Washington High cafeteria will be the scene tonight of the annual New Castle High athletic banquet. The affair starts at 6:30 o'clock D.S.T. Faculty Manager Robert Mills announced. The principal speaker will be Carl Olson, track coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

Shenango Beagle Meeting Friday

Shenango Valley Beagle club will meet at the Volant clubhouse at 8:30 p. m. Friday. Clover and Timothy seed have been sowed on the wheat ground. A program for crops for food and cover during the summer will be discussed.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

KENTUCKY DERBY at Churchill Downs will be run Saturday, and already the trek toward Louisville has begun. Those who go there go not only to see the race but also to participate socially with each other, and the famous mint julep will have a prominent place on the race-goer's calendar. Today there came from Mrs. Jack Herbert, now in Miami, a missive. She has seen both Citation and Countdown run, and in Miami, as here, there's a world of interest in the event. She writes: "Citation and Countdown both are entered. I believe Countdown may win, but I hope it will be Citation, for which I give my reason. I want Eddie Arcaro to ride the winner and he is 'up' on Citation. I think Pierson will ride Countdown. Al Suster, who was drowned with two friends, while on a fishing trip last March, had replaced Doug Dodson who gave Arcaro such a poor ride. Suster was to ride Citation for Calumet Farms in the Derby. Arcaro was then engaged. As he is anxious to make this race his fourth Derby win, he chose to ride Citation instead of Countdown, and said he would give Suster's widow half his purse. Winning the Derby means a purse of $80,000, and the jockey gets 10 percent, or $8,000, so Mrs. Suster would get $4,000. Warren Wright, owner of Citation, has stated he would match whatever Eddie donated. This is why I hope Citation wins, but I will not be surprised if Countdown comes 'home' in front. Possibly, I have been too busy looking at the Calumet entries and have overlooked a dark horse." In conclusion Mrs. Herbert reports her husband, Jack, and she will return to New Wilmington about May 25, where Jack will resume his duties as lifeguard at the pool.

City Baseball league officials and managers will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at Carm DeLeon's place, West Washington street, where ground rules for all fields will be announced. The league begins play May 9. . . . Frankie Moran is matched for a May bout with Freddie Mills at Ellwood City. . . . Tuesday night's storm swelled local streams thus handicapping trout. . . . Pee Wee Reese of the Dodgers is an impetuous chap. Having trouble with a fountain pen he tossed it out a bus window. . . . H. W. Horton was named president of the Meadville Bowling Association. . . . Sharon Country club's golf course opens Saturday, according to the pro, Milt Dunsmore. . . . John Jones, former outfielder, has returned, following an illness, to his duties as assistant to the city electrician. . . . Fifty dollars will be the top price for the Louis-Walcott fight in New York. . . . Answer to T. T. Root: Mon won the Hamletian at Goshen, N. Y., in 1947, in 2:00 flat, for a purse of $45,417.93. S. F. Pain was in the buggy. Chesterton took the event in 1946, and Titan Hanover in 1945. Bill Macquis, local auto packer, and once owner of Lorena Axworthy, a small but fairly good mare, here & there a colored picture of Titan Hanover which now is displayed by Buck Strabel. . . . Heidelberg, Pa., auto race track, six miles from Pittsburgh opens Memorial Day, according to President David J. Wright. Hank Miller is general manager of the raceway. One of the inducements to attend is that should a motorist get a "flat", it will be fixed free by raceway attendants, which is something not to be sneezed at. . . . Indications are that Tommy Bell of Youngstown, has stepped much. He was beaten by Gerardo Gavilan, Cuban, at Philadelphia. Bobby Bell, also of Youngstown, won his bout. He boxed at Flaherty field last summer.

Charles Has Quit
'Title Dreaming'No. 1 Light-Heavy Contender,
Training For Ray, Has
'Given Up Hope'

PITTSBURGH, April 29.—(INS)—Ezzard Charles, the No. 1 light-heavy contender, has "stopped dreaming about the championship."

Charles, in Pittsburgh to train for his May 7 bout against Elmer "Violent" Ray in Chicago, says that for two years he's been getting the run around.

From now on, the Chelmsford puncher is going to concentrate on each fight and let matters take their course.

Charles has nothing against Gus Lesnevich, the light-heavyweight champ, who has been suspected in some quarters of trying to dodge Charles. Ezzard says:

"Can't Blame Guy"

"You can't blame the guy for taking fights with Billy Fox and Freddie Mills. He's getting good money for those fights, maybe more than he'd get if he fought me. No, I don't think Gus is trying to avoid me."

Charles is out for revenge in the twice postponed Ray fight. Violent was the last man to beat the Cincinnati better, taking a split decision in Madison Square Garden last year.

The fight, which will be for the benefit of the parents of the late Sam Baroudi, who died after being knocked out by Charles in the same Chicago ring last February, was postponed when Charles developed a bad back.

The injury was definitely diagnosed by a Pittsburgh doctor today as a torn muscle in the back. The physician said it was coming along nicely and that Charles should be ready a week from Friday.

TOP-NOTCH QUINTS
CONTINUE TO FALL
IN DETROIT GAMES

DETROIT, April 29.—(INS)—Top-notch quintets continued to fall by the wayside today as the American Bowling Congress tournament entered its 50th day.

Optimistic fans have been waiting in vain for a spectacular breakthrough by one of the all-star teams. This year's meet, however, has proved a graveyard for the hopes of the high scorers.

When the final pin fell last night the present leaders still held their places.

West Side Club
Booking Games

The West Side Pirates, recently organized, are ready to play ball and would like contests with any team of the vicinity. The squad is composed of up-and-coming 17-year-olds and will give everyone a battle.

For games phone or write Harry L. McCabe, 20 Boroline street, city.

SCHOOLS DISMISS
'PRO' PERFORMERS

NEW YORK, April 29.—(INS)—New York university and Hofstra college authorities have dismissed "professional" athletes from their college baseball teams today in keeping with the NCAA regulations.

Pitcher Roy Taszley and third baseman Tom Capozzoli were ruled ineligible by athletic director Albert B. Nickerson. He said there is evidence "of their participation in organized baseball."

George Kaiser, Hofstra outfielder, admitted to coach Jack Smith that in 1944 he played in "less than ten games" with Wellsboro of the class D Pony league which embraces teams from New York and Pennsylvania.

Both NYU and Hofstra are members of the NCAA.

Night-Time Deer
Poachers To Get
Severe Penalties

HARRISBURG, April 29.—(INS)—An all-out campaign to crack down on night-time deer "poachers" in Pennsylvania was announced today by the State Game Commission.

Game officials announced plans to intensify prosecution of all hunters apprehended for killing deer at night by the use of automobiles and spotlights.

Penalties upon conviction will include seizure of automobiles and hunting equipment and stiff fines, according to the commission.

The intensified campaign was announced following the commission's successful prosecution of three Clarion county hunters charged with illegal killing and assisting in killing of four deer with the use of an automobile and spotlight September 20, 1947, near Marienville, Forest county.

The commission said Victor J. Niederwieser of Marienville was found guilty of illegally shooting deer and was fined $400 and costs. In addition, his 1947 automobile and high-caliber rifle were confiscated.

The car, six to be seized for game law infractions, will be sold at auction, the commission said.

Two brothers accompanying Niederwieser, Leonard W. and Robert Shill of Lucinda, R. D. each were fined $300 and costs for assisting in the unlawful slaughter.

The trio was apprehended by game agents after the commission began a general investigation of illegal deer kills in northwestern Pennsylvania in August, 1947.

National Capital
Open Has Lineup
Of Top Golfers

WASHINGTON, April 29.—(INS)—A flock of the nation's top golfers tee off today in Washington's premier links event of the year, the national capital open.

The Prince Georges Country club course in nearby Maryland for the next four days will be the mecca not only for the pro brigade for solons from Capitol Hill, many of whom plan to play hooky to watch the sterling athletes in action.

Low Worsham, a homebred and last year's national open king, is among the red-hot favorites in the race for $12,500 in prize money.

Other luminaries of golfdom on hand for the capital event include defending champion Lloyd Mangrum, Ben Hogan, Cary Middlecoff, Jim Ferrier, George Fazio and Dutch Harrison, the Arkansas traveler.

Frank Stranahan, the Toledo, O., millionaire muscle boy, tops the list of amateurs in the 72-hole scramble, which is expected to attract record throngs to the picturesque course.

Whether You're Rich Or Poor
Social Security Is Paid Out
When You Are 65 Years Old

Do you have one dollar or a million? It makes no difference, according to Myron Milbauer, manager of the New Castle office of the Social Security Administration, whether or not the monetary value of your worldly goods totals exactly nothing or runs into seven figures when you reach 65 and over and call work. If you qualify for old-age retirement insurance under the provisions of the Social Security Act, you'll be paid.

Mr. Milbauer cited the recent case of the president of a large corporation who had reached the minimum retirement age of 65. His personal holdings in cash and property were generally known to be well above the million mark. Since he was an employee of the corporation the first $3,000 of his yearly salary was "wages" for old-age insurance purposes. He decided to retire from business. Being a good business man he was naturally interested in receiving a return on all of his investments. The salary on which both he and the corporation paid social security taxes over a period of years was sufficient to provide him with an income when he retired. As his wife was 65 she was entitled to receive one-half as much as her husband. Both filed their claims and each are now receiving monthly retirement checks.

Insurance Primarily
"Old-age and survivors insurance is primarily an insurance system," the administration official said, "and retirement payments are based on income earned in jobs covered by the Social Security Act."

Many persons are of the erroneous opinion that the possession of property and a bank account prohibits the payment of old-age retirement insurance. When an individual files claim for old-age insurance, we don't ask him if he is worth a dollar or a million," Mr. Milbauer stressed the importance of wage earners contacting his office at New Castle as soon as they reach the age of 65, regardless of whether or not they expect to continue working. He also pointed out that some have lost benefits because of their failure to contact his office when they reach age 65, and others are now losing their monthly insurance because they still defer filing their claims.

"Our is a dual responsibility—we represent the public as well as the government. A single monthly benefit loss is one too many," he said.
